The Physiotherapists Registration Laws, 1989 to 2005 (Consolidation in English)	5
Note	45

NOTE FOR THE READER

The publication at hand by the Office of the Law Commissioner is an English translation and consolidation of the Physiotherapists Registration Laws (i.e. Laws 140 of 1989, 36(I) of 1998, 76(I) of 2004 and 101(I) of 2005). The Note, appearing at the end of the publication is important and should be borne in mind.

However useful the English translation of the consolidated Laws is in practice, it does not replace the original texts of the Laws since only the texts published in the Official Gazette of the Republic are authentic.

The Office of the Law Commissioner shall not be under any liability to any person or organisation in respect of any loss or damage, including consequential loss or damage, however caused, which may be incurred or arises directly or indirectly from reliance on information in this publication.

Board.
3 of 101(I) of 2005.*

3.-(1) There shall be established a Board for the Registration of Physiotherapists and Physiotherapy Establishments, appointed by the Council of Ministers upon a proposal of the Minister and shall consist of:

- (a) three registered physiotherapists holding a post in the public service of the Republic; and
- (b) four registered physiotherapists employed in private practice and nominated by the general meeting of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists.

(2) The Members of the Board shall elect one of them as Chairman thereof.

(3) The Chairman shall convene the meetings of the Board, and shall be bound to do so when requested by three members of the Board, shall draw up the agenda, being obliged to include therein any relevant matter which may be required by any member of the Board and shall preside at the meetings. In the absence of the Chairman the members present shall elect one of them to preside at that meeting.

(4) The Chairman and three other members or in the absence of the Chairman, any five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

* See Note at the end of the text.

(5) The Board shall decide by majority of votes of its members present; in the case of equality, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote. The decisions of the Board shall be restricted to the issues of the agenda.

(6) In the case of temporary absence or incapacity of the Chairman or other member of the Board, the Council of Ministers may, subject to the composition of the Board provided for in subsection (1), appoint any other person to act as Chairman or member, as the case may be, during such absence or incapacity.

(7) The Board may operate irrespective of any vacancy in any seat thereof.

(8) The Board may, subject to the provisions of this Law, regulate the convening of its meetings, the procedure to be followed thereat and the keeping of minutes.

(9) The members of the Board shall hold office for a period of two years from the date of their appointment:

Provided that, the Council of Ministers may, at any time, revoke the appointment of any member, if any serious cause in that behalf exists.

(10) All members of the Board not belonging to the public service of the Republic may resign from their seat upon submitting a written resignation to the Minister.

Establishment of the Fund of the Board.
4 of 101(I) of 2005.*

4.-(1) There shall be established a fund entitled "Fund of the Board" under the responsibility and the general management of the Board, operating according to internal rules issued for the purpose by the Board.

(2) The resources of the Board shall include all the fees collected under this Law.

(3) The Board shall keep a register of the physiotherapists providing services pursuant to subsection (1).

(4) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), a physiotherapist providing services pursuant to this section, shall be subject to all the provisions of the Law.

PART V - DISCIPLINE

Disciplinary Board.

12.-(1) There shall be established a Disciplinary Board to exercise disciplinary power over registered physiotherapists.

(2) The Disciplinary Board shall consist of the following:

(a) Two members of the Law Office of the Republic, nominated by the Attorney-General of the Republic;

(b) three registered physiotherapists, nominated by the Board; and

(c) Repealed.

12 of 101(l) of 2005.*

(3) The Chairman of the Disciplinary Board shall be the member of the Law Office of the Republic nominated for the purpose by the Attorney-General of the Republic and in case of absence or incapacity of that person the other member shall exercise the duties of the Chairman.

(4) The term of office of the members of the Disciplinary Board shall be three years.

* See Note at the end of the text.

(5) The Chairman of the Disciplinary Board or the member who exercises the duties of the Chairman and two other members shall constitute a quorum.

(6) The decisions of the Disciplinary Board shall be taken by majority of votes and in case of equality, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

Disciplinary prosecution.

13. A registered physiotherapist shall be subject to disciplinary prosecution –

- (a) if he is convicted by a Court for an offence involving dishonesty or moral turpitude;
- (b) if, in the opinion of the Disciplinary Board, he has shown disgraceful or unprofessional conduct during the practice of the profession of physiotherapist;
- (c) if he contravenes the obligations imposed on him under this Law or the Regulations made thereunder.

Disciplinary
investigation.

14.-(1) If any complaint for a disciplinary offence has been filed to the Board against a registered physiotherapist, the Board shall refer the complaint to the Minister, who shall forthwith appoint an officer of the Ministry (in this section referred to as “the investigating officer”) to conduct an investigation.

(2) The investigating officer shall forthwith conduct the investigation and during the investigation conducted by him, he shall have the power to hear any witnesses or to take any written statement from any person.

(3) The accused registered physiotherapist shall be entitled to have knowledge of the case against him and shall be given an opportunity to be heard.

(4) After the completion of the investigation, the investigating officer shall submit his report to the Board, which shall refer it to the Attorney-General of the Republic for his advice.

(5) The Attorney-General of the Republic shall advise the Board whether a disciplinary charge may be brought against the accused and in case of an advice to the affirmative, then he shall draft the charge.

(6) On receiving the disciplinary charge by the Attorney-General of the Republic, the Board shall send it to the Disciplinary Board.

Disciplinary proceeding.

15.-(1) The Disciplinary Board, shall, within two weeks of the date of receipt of the disciplinary charge, cause summons in the prescribed form to be issued and served upon the accused in the prescribed manner.

(2) The hearing of the case before the Disciplinary Board shall be conducted, mutatis mutandis, in the same manner as the hearing of a criminal case tried summarily:

Provided that, the Disciplinary Board shall have the power to admit any evidence even if the same would not have been admissible in any criminal proceedings.

(3) The Disciplinary Board shall have the power—

(a) to summon witnesses and require their attendance as well as that of the accused in the same manner as in trials conducted summarily;

(b) to demand the production of any document relevant to the charge.

(4) Every decision of the Disciplinary Board must be reasoned and signed by the Chairman thereof.

Disciplinary penalties.

16. The Disciplinary Board, may, if it finds the accused guilty, impose any of the following penalties:

- (a) Striking off the name of such person from the Register or from the list, as the case may be;
- (b) suspension of the licence to practise physiotherapy for such period as the Disciplinary Board may think fit;
- (c) payment in the form of a fine of a sum not exceeding eight hundred fifty four euros*;
- (d) oral or written reprimand.

PART VI –ASSOCIATION OF PHYSIOTHERAPISTS

Establishment of the Association.

17. There shall be established a Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists, which shall consist of all registered physiotherapists practising in the Republic.

Ordinary general meeting of the Association.

18.-(1) The Director-General of the Ministry of Health, not later than six months from the entry into force of this Law, and, the Chairman of the Board of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists, not later than the 31st of January in each subsequent second year, shall summon all registered physiotherapists practising in the Republic, to an ordinary general meeting at a time and place fixed by him.

(2) An invitation to the meeting referred to in subsection (1) shall be sent to all persons entitled to attend and to vote at such meeting specifying the time and place of the meeting. Such invitation shall be sent no more than fourteen days and no less than eight days prior to the date of the meeting:

*P.I. 312/2007 issued pursuant to section 9(1) of the Adoption of the Euro Law, 2007 (L.33(I)of 2007, as amended)

Provided that, in lieu of the abovementioned invitations, a publication may be made in at least two daily morning newspapers.

(3) The Chairman of the Board of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists or in his absence or incapacity or in the absence of a Chairman, a member designated by the general meeting for the purpose shall preside over the meeting and thirty physiotherapists present shall constitute a quorum:

Provided that, if within half an hour from the time appointed, no quorum is formed the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same time and day in the following week, in which case any physiotherapists present shall constitute a quorum.

(4) All questions shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the physiotherapists present and in the case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(5) The ordinary general meeting of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists shall proceed amongst other things to the election of:

- (a) Seven registered physiotherapists to constitute the Board of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists;
- (b) four registered physiotherapists in the private practice to represent the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists to the Board:

Provided that, in case of a vacancy in the seat of a member of the Board nominated under paragraph (b) for any reason, the Board of the Association shall nominate to the Council of Ministers for appointment to the vacant seat, another registered physiotherapist, who shall hold the seat until the expiration of the term of office of the member in whose seat he is appointed.

Board of the Association.

19.-(1) The members of the Board of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists shall hold office until the next elections.

(2) The Board of the Association shall elect amongst its members its Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer.

(3) Five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

(4) All questions shall be decided by a majority of the votes of members present and in case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(5) The Chairman of the Board of the Association shall convene the meetings of the Board, and he shall be bound to do so upon a written request of not less than three members, specifying the purpose of the meeting, he shall draw up the agenda and shall preside over the meetings at which he shall be present and if he is absent or incapacitated, the Vice-Chairman shall preside and in the case of absence or incapacity of the Vice-Chairman, the members present shall elect one of them to preside.

(6) The Board of the Association shall regulate its own work, the convening of its meetings and the procedure followed at its meetings.

Extraordinary general meeting.

20.-(1) The Board of the Association may, whenever it thinks fit, and it shall upon a request made in writing by one-fourth of the members of the Association and in any case by not less than twenty members, summon an extraordinary general meeting.

(2) If the Board of the Association does not within thirty days of such request proceed duly to convene such meeting, any forty physiotherapists of those making the request may convene an extraordinary general meeting.

(3) The request shall state the purpose of the meeting and shall be signed by those making it.

(4) The provisions of subsections (2), (3), with the exception of the provisos thereof and of subsection (4) of section 18, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to any general meeting convened under this section.

(5) If within half an hour from the time appointed no quorum is formed, the extraordinary general meeting shall be dissolved.

Subscription to the Association. 13 of 101(I) of 2005.*

21.-(1) The members of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists shall pay an annual subscription, the amount of which shall be fixed by the general meeting.

(2) A subscription payable under subsection (1) may be sued for and collected as a debt due to the Board of the Association and, without prejudice to his liability to pay such fee, no registered physiotherapist may attend any meeting of the Association held under the provisions of this Law or be eligible for election to the Board of the Association, unless he has first paid the subscription payable by him under this Law.

Powers of the Board.

22. The Board of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists shall consider all matters relating to the profession and shall take such action thereon, as it may deem expedient and, without prejudice to the generality of this provision, shall have the following powers—

- (a) to promote and protect the status of the profession;
- (b) to set up any committees for the better carrying out of its functions;

* See Note at the end of the text.

SEVENTH SCHEDULE
(Section 22A)

Code of ethics

Interpretation

1. In this code, unless the context otherwise requires, all terms shall have the meaning assigned to them by the Physiotherapists Registration Laws, 1989 to 2004.

Scope of application

2. This code shall be implemented by all registered physiotherapists possessing a licence to practise the profession of physiotherapist.

Professional conduct

3. (1) The physiotherapist must always keep in mind that he is dedicated in the service of people's health and that he must consciously perform his work, in strict compliance with the relevant legislation in force and according to the commands of the physiotherapeutic morals and rules.

(2) The physiotherapist must communicate, inform and cooperate with the attending doctor of the patient, in case medical diagnosis is required and/or the patient is undergoing medical treatment.

Preserving the honor of the profession

4. The physiotherapist must be an example of an honest and respectable person in all aspects of his private and public life.

Duty to the state, the patients etc.

5. (1) The physiotherapist must respond to his role and mission which creates duties and obligations upon him towards:

* See Note at the end of the text.

- (i) the state,
- (ii) the patients,
- (iii) the profession and to each of his colleagues.

(2) Every physiotherapist must provide his services to the patients in such conscientious and diligent manner as befits a registered physiotherapist.

Compliance with the code of ethics

6. Every physiotherapist must strictly comply with the code of ethics intended to guarantee and ensure the proper exercise of the profession.

Obligation to comply with the legislation in force

7. The physiotherapist must comply with the legislation in force for the time being.

Integral and intact professional independence

8. The physiotherapist shall not be allowed to compromise his scientific and professional independence, which he must maintain integral and intact.

Prohibition of unlawful collaboration

9. Partnership or any other unlawful collaboration between the physiotherapist and doctors or other persons, aimed at extracting unacceptable fees against the patient shall be prohibited.

Covering illegalities

10. The physiotherapist must not afford, or allow or offer to cover or otherwise protect persons who aim at practising physiotherapy illegally, or have any collaboration with such persons.

Chase of customers

11. The physiotherapist must not use deceitful or undignified means in order to chase customers.

Compliance with decisions of the Board of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists

12. The physiotherapist must comply with the decisions of the Board of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists.

Professional confidentiality

13.(1) The physiotherapist must strictly adhere to medical and professional confidentiality and must respect, without time limitation, the confidentiality of any information or data which is brought to his knowledge in the course of his work.

(2) The physiotherapist must keep within the medical record any written, electronic and/or other information, notes or reports concerning the patient including the results of medical or X-ray examination.

(3) Should a patient make an accusation against the physiotherapist, or the physiotherapist is facing disciplinary charges, then the latter shall be entitled to disclose any confidential information entrusted to him in relation to the accusation or charges, even if such action compromises medical confidentiality:

Provided that, the above shall not apply if the patient is under the responsibility of two or more physiotherapists.

International obligations of physiotherapists

(1) In cases where the physiotherapist is permitted to practise physiotherapy abroad, he must adhere to the code of ethics of the state in which he practises.

(2) In the case that a foreign physiotherapist is allowed or licenced to practise physiotherapy in the Republic, he must adhere to the present code of ethics and in case of contravention thereof, he shall be subject to disciplinary prosecution.

Advertisement – Publicity

15. (1) Any legitimate advertisement, publicity and promotion of the professional activity of the physiotherapist or his physiotherapy establishment in Cyprus and abroad shall be allowed to the extent and degree prescribed in the present Regulations and in a manner compatible with the decency of the profession.

(2) No personal advertisement of the physiotherapist in any way, no public mention of his name or any propaganda for that name instigated by himself or in his knowledge shall be allowed.

(3) In cases where third persons or businesses or sanatoria or hospitals or institutes or clinics, or otherwise, use the name of a physiotherapist for any form of promotion thereof, then he must respond to immediately stop this propaganda.

(4) The physiotherapist shall be allowed to write and/or otherwise publish articles or projects that serve scientific purposes in general and the promotion of the profession.

(5) Advertisements relating to physiotherapy shall be allowed in the daily press, provided that the title and expertise is mentioned, only in any of the following cases:

- (i) Establishment of a physiotherapist in a place of practice;
- (ii) moving a physiotherapy establishment;
- (iii) changing the telephone number or the working hours;
- (iv) absence of the physiotherapist for more than one week and subsequent return.

(6) The texts of such advertisements must not occupy a space greater than three inches height in two columns. The advertisements regarding the establishment may be published in one issue of one or more newspapers and the remaining advertisements in four issues of one or more newspapers.

(7) A physiotherapist shall not be allowed to promote or allow or otherwise be involved in the distribution or publication of advertising leaflets or texts in the mass media or to post or suspend advertising notices or signs in any public place.

(8) A physiotherapist may state in the sign only:

- (i) his name;
- (ii) the name of the physiotherapy establishment;
- (iii) his academic qualifications;
- (iv) the name of the university faculty from which he has obtained his diploma;
- (v) the days and hours of operation of the physiotherapy establishment:
 Provided that, flashy decoration of the signs shall be forbidden;
- (vi) the approved emblem of the Association.

(9) The correspondence paper and seals may only contain the following:

- (i) the particulars of the sign;
- (ii) the address and telephone numbers of the physiotherapy establishment;
- (iii) the address of the physiotherapist's residence.

Duties to the patients

16. The physiotherapist must demonstrate the same care, diligence and devotion, to all patients in general, irrespective of the financial condition and social status of each one of them and irrespective of his personal feelings. In no case physiotherapists or other persons are allowed to use the means and potential of physiotherapy as a science for immoral pursuits.

Respect to the patient's wishes

17. The physiotherapist is bound and obliged to respect the right of a patient who wishes to replace him with another physiotherapist.

Refusal to provide treatment

18. The physiotherapist may refuse to provide treatment to a patient:

 Provided that, in cases of emergency or humanitarian duty the physiotherapist must not refuse to do so.

Obligation to colleagues

19.(1) Every physiotherapist is bound and obliged to maintain friendly relations with his colleagues and shall refrain from any action aimed at harming their status, dignity or lawful interests.

(2) A physiotherapist shall have a moral obligation and is bound to defend the professional dignity of his colleagues from any form of slander or criticism.

(3) A physiotherapist shall be expressly forbidden to visit a patient treated by his colleague without the latter's knowledge or explicit consent, unless that patient has fully dismissed the attending physiotherapist and has settled all pending financial obligations towards him:

Provided that, the above shall apply for societies, unions, federations, organizations e.t.c.

(4) A physiotherapist may not express opinion on whether any fees set or collected by his colleague, are reasonable or not, unless with the consent and/or order of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists.

Informing the Association for breaches of ethics

20. If a physiotherapist becomes aware of acts or omissions of a colleague harmful to the health of a patient or contrary to the morals and honor of the body of physiotherapists, he must relatively inform the administration of the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists as promptly as possible.

Reward

21.(1) The Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists shall have the power to prescribe maximum and minimum reward for services provided by physiotherapists.

(2) A physiotherapist may choose not to accept any reward from indigent patients:

Provided that, any person receiving, by law or regulation, social security or medical care shall not be considered indigent as far as the physiotherapist is concerned.

(3) (a) Any systematic and deliberate reduction of the amount of reward, by average most common in the field, shall be considered as an act of illegitimate competition towards the colleagues and lack of respect to the dignity of the profession.

(b) Any person who contravenes the above shall be subject to disciplinary prosecution.

Prohibition of bribery

22. A physiotherapist shall not be allowed to offer percentages to medical practitioners or physiotherapists in cases of referring patients and must be confined to the direct collection of his fees.

Collective agreements

23. Only the Pancyprian Association of Physiotherapists may negotiate collective agreements.

Change of address

24. A physiotherapist must, whenever he changes his address, forthwith inform and in any case not later than two months the secretary of the Pancyprian Association of Cyprus Physiotherapists.

NOTE

The following laws contain provisions which do not constitute part of the principal law and they can not be included in the consolidated text of the Law as a section thereof. However, in view of the fact that they affect the application of the Law it was considered expedient to include them in this Note:

(1) (a) By virtue of section 26 thereof, the Physiotherapists Registration Law of 1989 (L. 140/1989) shall come into force on a date to be fixed by the Council of Ministers by a notification published in the official Gazette of the Republic.

(b) By a decision of the Council of Ministers pursuant to section 26 of L.140/1989, published in the official Gazette of the Republic, Supplement III (I), dated 27.10.1989, Law 140/1989 came into force on 1st November 1989.

(2) The Physiotherapists Registration (Amendment) Law, 1998 (L. 36(I)/1998) published in the official Gazette of the Republic, Supplement I (I), dated 22.5.98, contains the following provision:

“Transitional provision.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of section (6) of the principal law, any person may apply for registration in the Register within three months from the entry into force of this Law, provided that:

(a) On the 1st November, 1989 –

(i) he was sufficiently qualified to practise physiotherapy, and

(ii) he has been bona fide engaged in the practice of physiotherapy as self-employed; and

(b) he has been engaged in the practice of physiotherapy for not less than three years before the 1st November, 1989.”

(3) The Physiotherapists Registration (Amendment) Law, 2004 (L. 76(I)/2004), published in the official Gazette of the Republic, Supplement I (I), dated 16.4.2004, contains the following provision:

“Entry into force of this Law. 7. This Law shall come into force on the date of accession of the Republic to the European Union. ”

(4) The Physiotherapists Registration (Amendment) Law, 2005 (L. 101(I)/2005), published in the official Gazette of the Republic, Supplement I (I), dated 29.7.2005, contains the following provision:

“Special provision. Official Gazette, Supplement III(I): 9.11.1990. 17. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Physiotherapists (Registration Fees) Regulations, 1990, the fee for registration in the Register of physiotherapists shall be set to fifty one euros*.

* P.I. 312/2007 issued pursuant to section 9(1) of the Adoption of the Euro Law, 2007 (L.33(I)of 2007, as amended)
